Student of the Month

Dear Shamrock Family,

The rainy season is definitely upon us, yet our kids and staff are hanging in there nicely, as we make alternate plans to work around the weather and various projects going on around the school and parish. We are excited for the rain to let up however, so that students can get outside and so that our play structure installation can continue. We look forward to the completion of the church renovation as well. I thank all involved for their patience as we wait out these days indoors while various improvement projects are executed.

At the end of the month we will celebrate Catholic Schools' Week, with our kick off to Catholic Schools' week mass held in the gym on Sunday, January 27th at 11:30am. Following mass on that Sunday will be our annual Open House from 12:30-3:30pm. We look forward to welcoming current and prospective families to see all the incredible work of our students and to enjoy the community that is our St. John Catholic School shamrock family!

Blessings,
Ms. Paige Child
