From the Principal's Desk

Dear SJCS Families,

This week during lent, we are called by God to consider injustice in the world. We are reminded to be peacemakers like Jesus and to correct the injustice that surrounds us by treating others fairly and with respect. Standing up for and speaking out on behalf of the weak, lowly, and oppressed is a mission of ours during Lent, as we recall the way in which Jesus was mistreated during His trip to Calvary and amidst His crucifixion. Take some time to reflect with a mini-Lenten retreat by clicking on the link below.
