Dear Shamrock Family,

To begin, thank you for sharing your support of and appreciation for our St. John Catholic School teachers last week during Teacher Appreciation Week! The outpouring of cards, door decorations, sweet treats, and kind words had our teachers feeling very loved. Likewise, we share much gratitude for our PTG for their daily delivery of breakfast and lunch items for our entire school staff. You kept our faculty fed and caffeinated, and where there is food and coffee, there are happy teachers!

In continuing with our celebratory theme, we are excited to host our annual school auction, Margaritas & Must Haves this Saturday, May 18th in our very own St. John Parish Gym at 6:30pm. Tickets are still available and are only $25, so get yours soon and plan to come on out for an exciting evening of all you can eat tacos/quesadillas, drinks for purchase, dancing, and of course, a plethora of auction items up for bid. Tickets will also be sold at the door. This was a great time last year and we are anticipating the same on Saturday!

Lastly, we will gather in the church this evening to enjoy our students' performances at our Spring Concert. Students are asked to gather in their homeroom classrooms at 6pm (MUSE band members excluded). From there, families are asked to find their seats in the church and then students will be escorted over to the church at 6:30pm to begin our musical performances. Church best attire is what is requested of our students for this evening's event. Thank each of you for your continued support and I look forward to celebrating our students at this evening's Spring Concert!

Attentively,
Paige Child
